Rules for the Game of Life

1. God gave you a body. You may like it, hate it, or be comfortable with it; but it will be yours for life.
2. You are enrolled in a full-time informal school called "life." Each day in this school you will have the opportunity to learn lessons. God encourages you to learn His lessons.
3. There are no mistakes, only lessons. God does not make mistakes. Growth is a process of experimentation, trial and error. The "failed" experiments are as much a part of the process as the experiment that ultimately "works."
4. A lesson is repeated until learned. A lesson will be presented to you in various forms until you have learned it. When you have learned it you can go on to the next lesson.
5. Learning does not end. There is no part of life that does not contain its lessons. If you are alive, there are more lessons to be learned.
6. "There" is no better than "here". When your "there" has become a "here", you will simply obtain another "there" that will, again, look better than "here".
7. Others are merely mirrors of you. You cannot love or hate something about another person unless it reflects to you something you love or hate about yourself. See the wonder of creation in each human being.
8. What you make of your life is up to you. God has given you or will give you all the tools and resources you need. What you do with them is up to you. The choice is yours.
9. Your answers lie inside you. God has given them to you. All you need to do is look, listen and trust His voice.
10. Whether you believe this or not, is irrelevant; for this information is a lesson as well.
